BUCKLEY PARK COLLEGE
Build your Wings

Welcome to the Instrumental Music Program

Music is a gift for life: an intangible medium enjoyed by children and adults of all ages. As individuals, we are all intrinsically motivated to create and move to music through our constant exposure to it in all parts of our life. Possessing the ability to stimulate the senses and the minds of both performers and listeners, music brings stories to life by means of rhythm, melody, and words. Each person who creates music expresses themselves as an individual through this powerful medium. Here at Buckley Park College, we offer the opportunity to learn and create music via our vibrant Instrumental Music Program. Through a combination of band, small group and individual lessons, students receive a quality music education that caters to their specific learning needs and interests. Equipping students with the fundamentals of instrumental music making, they develop a deeper understanding and appreciation for the arts. I invite you to join with us in giving the gift of music to your children, as offered by the Buckley Park Instrumental Music Program.

HOW THE LESSONS WORK

Each student receives a 50-minute individual and/or group lesson on a weekly basis. Students who have chosen VCE music will be prioritised for individual lessons. To minimise impact on the rest of student's academic programs all instrumental lessons rotate through the six class periods over successive weeks.

Students will have a minimum of 32 lessons throughout the school year plus ensembles. Additional lessons may be scheduled, depending on the students' curricular calendar and interruptions from camps, excursions, school carnivals etc..

Students are informally assessed at the end of each lesson in regards to their progress, attendance, and behaviour. If any problems or concerns arise, the school will contact the parents/carers. Likewise, we also encourage that parents/carers and students contact the Instrumental Music Teacher with any problems or concerns they may have in relation to a student learning their instrument, and home practice.

Students can only undertake an additional instrument where there is a vacancy in the appropriate class and after consultation with the Teacher and Music Coordinator. They must show an ongoing commitment to not only their instruments but their academic performance also.

BAND AND ENSEMBLE PARTICIPATION

Once a student reaches the required playing standard, it is compulsory for them to join an appropriate band. This ensures that all students have the opportunity to play in an ensemble appropriate to their playing standard and we as a school have the privilege of working with complete bands, i.e. where all the required instruments taught at the school are played by students in each ensemble.

Concert Band (After school)

All students learning a Brass, Woodwind or Drums/Percussion instrument at school commence playing in this ensemble as soon as they are up to the required standard. It is from this band at any time (usually at the end of the year) that students will be promoted to other ensembles, as they grow in their musicality and basic mastery of their particular instrument.

Senior Concert Band (After school)

Provided that numbers of senior students continuing instrumental music permits; once students are promoted from the Concert Band, they join other advanced musicians in a similar situation: The Senior Concert Band. It is here where students continue to develop their own musicality, further develop playing techniques, and expand their knowledge of Band Etiquette.

Guitar Ensemble (Lunchtime)

Open to students who play acoustic or electric guitars and bass guitar. This ensemble's focus is the learning of chords and songs for public performance. Players selected to perform in this ensemble will show superior skill on their instrument and attitudes towards improving their musicianship.

Choir (After school)

Open to all singers and students who are getting lessons in voice. This group focuses on learning melodies, harmony and singing in parts which combined creates the school choir which performs at assemblies, concerts and carolling.

 EVENTS & PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Throughout the year the students will have the opportunity to be part of musical events and performances. Some of these will be school based performances for functions, competitions or assemblies, where the school bands/ensembles will perform. Others will be special events to further showcase and/or develop student progress.

Below is a list of events to look forward to:

- Orientation Performance
- Assembly Performances
- House Music competition
- Mid and End of Year Concerts
- Music Camp
- Production
- Caroling
- Christmas Concert
- Victorian School Bands Competition

 PERFORMANCE UNIFORM

School uniform is to be worn for all formal presentation events such as assemblies and other school presentations. Performance blacks required for mid and end of year concerts. Students should have smart casual wear in all black.

Students will be advised when other dress codes are appropriate.

SUPPLYING YOUR CHILD WITH AN INSTRUMENT

Buckley Park College has a small collection of good quality loan instruments that are available for loan at an annual cost of $180 which is less than $5 per week for the school year. The Instrumental Music Teacher will notify students accordingly to take up a loan instrument where available.

The following instruments are currently available for loan from the school:

- Flute & Clarinet
- Alto & Tenor Saxophone
- Trumpet, Trombone

Students are highly encouraged to purchase his/her own instrument by the beginning of their second year in the program. This will allow new students to begin those instruments with suitable turnaround time.

Alternatively students can choose to hire or rent to own instruments from music stores such as Fine Music.

FEES & COSTS

In addition to lesson and group costs, there are some additional costs, which occur throughout the year. For example:

- Reeds & other ongoing requirements for respective instruments
- Regular servicing of own instrument as required
- Compulsory music books, particularly for Individual Lessons
- Various stationary including pencils & erasers
- Entrance fees for spectators at competitions for Parents/Carers
- Purchase of Performance Uniform Requirements (if needed)
- Camps, workshops & other special events

INSTRUMENTAL FEES

Type of Instruction	Cost
Instrument Hire	$180 Per Year
Instrumental Lessons & Ensembles	$800 annually
Instrumental Lessons (2nd)	$400 annually

The above fees are based a minimum of 32 lessons plus ensemble rehearsals

The Department of Education provides funding to the school for just under half the salary costs of the instrumental program. The fee that parents pay makes up most of the rest of those salary costs and also includes the teacher time allocated to band and ensemble rehearsals and performances. Where a student takes tuition on a second instrument there is an additional fee.

The instrumental music program subscription is not a “per lesson” fee. Students in the instrumental program have access to various bands and ensembles and other activities which are also conducted and supported by the instrumental music teachers. Hence, the fee is for access to a whole program over the course of one school year.

These teachers not only take instrumental classes, they also run after school and lunchtime rehearsals and a range of performances throughout the year. In order to ensure continuity for students, teachers are employed for the full school year and not on a sessional basis. This considerably reduces the costs of the program and therefore, the costs to parents. However, this means that staff have entitlements to paid sick leave etc along with all other workers. The enrolment of students in the program is also for the full school year not on a lesson by lesson basis as is the enrolment of students in other subjects and courses in the school. Therefore, it is not an expectation that students are entitled to make-up lessons if their teacher is away.

Where parents are experiencing difficulties with payment, a plan to pay by instalment can be arranged by contacting the schools Business Manager.

Inquiries about the Instrumental Music Program should be directed to the music coordinator or instrumental staff.

STRATEGIES FOR PARENTS TO ENCOURAGE STUDENTS TO PLAY

Encourage them not to just practise but also encourage them to play. This relates not just to children beginning to play an instrument, but to students continuing to play through to Year 7 and beyond.

Playing an instrument in a room behind closed doors can be a very lonely experience. A little encouragement can go a long way to helping them to enjoy and achieve well with their instrument. Try one, some, or all of these ideas and add any that other parents may suggest:

- Have the child play near you so you can hear and enjoy their practice, maybe not every day but every so often.
- Even sit down with a book or just sit and listen.
- Praise their sounds (especially the good ones) often.
- Make a comment about the progress you notice.
- Show pride in their achievements and let them overhear you talking to your friends about their wonderful progress.
- Ask them to play for guests at home (they may not want to but sometimes just being asked means a lot to them).
- Notice difficult sections and ask how they are played.
- Comment on the piece of music – interesting melody, rhythm, changed sections.
- Set a practise routine. This is particularly important if your child or the household are involved in other activities outside of school.
- Don't nag or push your child to practise – it can become very stressful for both you and your child. If you are finding it difficult to get your child to practise, please come and talk to your Instrumental Music Teacher.

HINTS FOR SUCCESSFUL MUSIC PRACTICE

- Always practice with your music on a music stand
- Try to practice at least 15-20 minutes four to five times per week
- Aim to gradually increase your practice time to 30 minutes each day over the first year
- Start and finish your practice with a piece you can play well and enjoy
